**To help the Nominating Committee further understand you, briefly describe your theology
I am a progressive moderate. I affirm the received Gospel and traditions of the PCUSA, but am open to the Holy Spirit leading us in new ways.

**Please share why you want to represent National Capital Presbytery at the General Assembly
Beginning my third decade of ministry, I have never been to a GA meeting. In over 50 years of faithful membership in NCP, Grace Church has never had an elder or pastor attend GA. I believe I know this presbytery well, and trust I can do the work of discerning the will of Christ for His Church as a responsible commissioner from NCP.
