NCP selects its delegates to represent the diversity of theological opinion present among us. Recognizing that each of the statements in the couplets below may be true, please place two numbers within each of the 4 sets of statements: Place a 1 before the statement in each section with which you most agree. Assign a 2 or 3 or 4 before the statement with which you least agree, with 4 indicating the least agreement. Add comments if necessary.

Rating Number	Theological Statement
2	The Kingdom of God is realized as individuals develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
1	The realm of God is most often realized in the believing community's witness to and participation in the advancement of social justice in the world. Comments:
2	It is vitally important to affirm that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
1	To follow the teachings of Jesus is the most important witness to faith. Comments:
2	The Scriptures, given under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are nevertheless the words of humans, conditioned by the cultural and historical context in which they were written. The Spirit continually reforms our understanding of them.
1	The Scriptures, given under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are definitive for how we should live, and we ignore their explicit instructions at our peril. Comments:
3	The goal of evangelism is to save people from eternal punishment.
1	The goal of evangelism is to offer individuals a place/role in the believing community, which exemplifies God's reconciling love and acceptance. Comments:

Share with the committee what you believe are the key theological issues currently facing the church and society, and how they shape your experience in the church. Salvation is a free gift to everyone who believes in Jesus Christ. Once a person trusts in Christ as his or her personal Savior, that person belongs to God, is free from the power of sin, and has assurance of eternal life.

Please share why you want to represent National Capital Presbytery at the General AssemblyIf the nomination is approved, it would be my first attendance at a General Assembly that I wish to experience.
