Please share why you want to represent National Capital Presbytery at the General Assembly**I am grateful for the growth I have had through Presbytery's focus on "transformation" and want to bring that perspective to GA along with my experience in a multicultural, urban congregation. Also, on a personal note, my father, Rev. Dr. William P. Lytle died in May. He was born in Pittsburgh and my grandfather, Rev. William T. Lytle served congregations in Pittsburgh for 50 years. I feel serving the church this year at GA would be a way to honor both of their lives and ministries.
