Other ways:

Recognize previous donors

Include an announcement in the bulletin

Ask a donor to give a personal testimonial—minute for mission, during offering

Host a wills education/information event—tell people about it

Report on how funds from a previous gift were used

The Presbyterian Foundation can facilitate any type of charitable gift

Put a easy to use donor reply card in the pew, track rack, fellowship pad

Have a special coffee hour with refreshments and literature

Provide “I can help you” name tags for estate planning professionals who are members

Attorneys, financial planners, CPA, Life Insurance, trust officers, stewardship chair

Provide the proper language, tax ID #, legal church name for people to give to their advisors

Follow-up on every individual who is interested

Announce it in your church newsletter; put it on the web site

Invite Karl to a special WILLS EVENT and promote it on Sunday

Put posters on multiple bulletin boards with a contact person name & phone

Encourage the church office to confidentiality record any interested person

If you have a will, you can add an amendment (codicil) to include the church

Explain the benefits of having a will

You can take control of your earthly possessions and their eventual distribution

It can be changed at any time

You can select the personal representative/executor. Executrix

You can select guardians for minor children or those with special needs

You can demonstrate your Christian gratitude for all you have been given

You can include the church in your plans—designated or unrestricted

Think of the personal satisfaction that you have it done
