

Enneagram Retreat: Exploring Subtypes

August 21, 2019

9:00am-3:00pm

Providence Presbyterian Church
9019 Little River Turnpike, Fairfax, VA

Cost: $70 Scholarships available

Bring a bag lunch; cost includes hearty snacks & hand-outs

RSVP by August 18th: cmhovis@gmail.com

The Enneagram is a powerful tool to look at 9 distinct personality strategies of how we humans cope in relationships, work & the world.

Subtypes are 3 specific arenas of life where the vice/passion of our type shows up. Knowing our subtype helps us relax the energy of our vice.

This is an opportunity to learn & reflect upon our internal motivations and focus of attention.

An invitation to shift our daily patterns of thinking, feeling & acting in the world.

Rev. Carol Hovis
cmhovis@gmail.com
Scholarships available

Carol is a Presbyterian minister, spiritual director and certified enneagram teacher with Enneagram Studies in the Narrative Tradition (ESNT). Carol served on staff at Providence, 1988-1997.