

Celebrating 75 years

Learn & Discern - October 11-14 Accompaniment & Peacebuilding in Colombia & the US/Mexico Borderlands

Being an acompañante is to engage in the ministry of presence. It's not about changing, fixing, or even helping. It's not about analyzing or diagnosing, recommending or advising. It's about being there as wholly and fully as possible, present to God's movement within you and those you came to stand beside. -Susan Webb, accompanier in Barranquilla, Colombia in 2008

Acompañantes - accompaniers - are people of faith and conscience who are committed to spending a month being present with PPF partners. Like Susan says, acompañantes resist the urge to fix and instead show up as support for leaders who are making change in their communities.

Acompañantes actively choose nonviolence in places where violence seems like the normal way. Does this sound like you? You can begin your accompaniment journey by joining us for a weekend of training, education, and discernment in community.

To sign up to learn & discern this October go to <http://www.presbypeacefellowship.org/discern>

If you have questions or would like to learn more contact Accompaniment Coordinator
Alison Wood at alison@presbypeacefellowship.org