

The Search Committee for the Transitional Director of Congregational Development and Mission recommended, and the Leadership Council approved the appointment of the Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe.

We welcome The Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe, as Transitional Director for Congregational Development and Mission, National Capital Presbytery, effective September 9, 2019.

Tara will provide leadership to the Church Development Committee, the Mission Coordinating Committee, and their respective Teams as the Presbytery pursues its vision of strengthening and transforming congregations to be missional, pastoral and prophetic.

The Rev. Tara Spuhler McCabe has served in the National Capital Presbytery in Washington, D.C. for the past 19 years. Recently, she has been the Site Coordinator for the DC-Young Adult Volunteer Program. She has served in congregations throughout the presbytery as an Associate Pastor at New York Avenue Presbyterian, Stated Supply at Garden Memorial, and Sabbatical Pastor for several other congregations throughout the presbytery. Tara also served on the Nominating Committee of NCP and was recently elected to serve on Leadership Council.

For the past three years, she has contributed to the ministry at Faith Presbyterian Church while serving the presbytery-at -large as a leadership coach and Church Assessment Tool Interpreter (CAT) with individuals and groups seeking to be in relationship with their communities as the larger Body of Christ.

She is a graduate of Agnes Scott College, BA and McCormick Theological Seminary, MDIV. She has total faith that in every era and every day, God is doing a new thing and it is our opportunity to participate in it! She lives in Arlington, VA with her husband, two children, and a hound dog!

Reach Tara at tspuhlermccabe@thepresbytery.org