

Book Talk on Henry G. Brinton's "City of Peace"

Thursday, October 24, 2019

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Meadowkirk at Delta Farm

As Jesus came near and saw the city, he wept over it, saying, "If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace!" (Luke 19:41-42)

Come to the Stone Barn at Meadowkirk for a talk on pastor Henry Brinton's mystery novel City of Peace. Henry is senior pastor of Fairfax Presbyterian Church and has served on the Meadowkirk Board of Directors. His book has been described as "a unique murder mystery with spiritual overtones, demonstrating how God can deliver good out of evil." (John J. Jessop, author of Guardian Angel: Unforgiven)

Henry will give a short talk, Meadowkirk Executive Director Timothy Sipols will offer a response, and then Henry will sign books for those who are interested. Fairfax Presbyterian's "Men y Mujeres on a Mission" will sell copies of the novel for $17.00 as a fundraiser for their mission work in Honduras.

The event is without charge, and no reservations are required.

"Deeply spiritual writers often have difficulty with suspense. Not Henry Brinton. City of Peace is timely, compelling and entertaining."

(Al Sikes, author of Culture Leads Leaders Follow and former Chair of the Federal Communications Commission under George H.W. Bush)

For more information, contact:

Meadowkirk at Delta Farm
38012 Delta Farm Ln, Middleburg, VA 20117
540-687-5565

City of Peace is Winner in the Mystery/Suspense: Cozy Mystery category of the 2019 American Fiction Awards