

Join us for Compassion, Peace & Justice Training Day

Stay for Ecumenical Advocacy Days

April 24-27 | Washington, D.C.

We believe that God created this world, called it good, and told humans to care for it. We are blessed to have this sacred task.

On April 24, 2020, join with Presbyterians from across the nation in Washington, D.C. to learn how Presbyterians and partners are answering this call and working for the restoration of God's creation and people. Through plenaries, workshops, and networking opportunities, this CPJ Training Day offers the chance to explore the various ways we are addressing climate change, ecological destruction and environmental racism. Advancing climate justice and just transition to value and protect people who have historically been made vulnerable by economic and environmental injustice will be a special focus.

Many will continue the learning by attending the Ecumenical Advocacy Days: Imagine! God's Earth and People Restored from Friday evening on April 24 through Lobby Day on Monday the 27th. Almost 1,000 Christian advocates join us every year for a weekend of workshops, lectures and concrete actions addressing movements for social change.

Use this link for more information and registration:

<https://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/compassion-peace-justice/washington/advocacy-training-weekend/>