

Book Talk on Henry G. Brinton's "City of Peace"

Sunday, March 1, 2020

1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Trinity Presbyterian Church

As Jesus came near and saw the city, he wept over it, saying, "If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace!" (Luke 19:41-42)

Come to Trinity Presbyterian Church for a talk on pastor Henry Brinton's newly released mystery novel City of Peace.

Henry is senior pastor of Fairfax Presbyterian Church.

His book has been described as

"a unique murder mystery with spiritual overtones, demonstrating how God can deliver good out of evil."

(John J. Jessop, author of Guardian Angel: Unforgiven)

Henry will give a talk with PowerPoint images from the book, and there will be an opportunity for audience Q&A. Then Henry will sign books for those who are interested – Fairfax Presbyterian's "Men y Mujeres on a Mission" are selling copies of the novel for $17.00 as a fundraiser for their mission work in Honduras.

"Deeply spiritual writers often have difficulty with suspense. Not Henry Brinton. City of Peace is timely, compelling and entertaining."

(Al Sikes, author of Culture Leads Leaders Follow and former Chair of the Federal Communications Commission under George H.W. Bush)
