

CONTRIBUTIONS

to the Ministry Crisis Fund of National Capital Presbytery can be made at any time and are always gratefully received. The generous offerings provided by worshipers during services of clergy installations are the primary source of income for the Ministry Crisis Fund.

Checks should be made payable to National Capital Presbytery with a notation in the memo line "Ministry Crisis Fund" and mailed to:

MINISTRY CRISIS
FUND
of the National Capital Presbytery

National Capital Presbytery

34,000 disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ in 108 churches, 3 missions and 6 immigrant fellowships in D.C., Maryland, and the Northern Virginia area.

The Ministry Crisis Fund is ...

a longstanding financial resource of National Capital Presbytery.

It has two purposes:

1. to assist in responding to emerging crises in the lives of clergy, church professionals and employees and others involved in our joint ministry.
2. to assist congregations as they deal with emerging ministry crises, primarily in the area of conflict involving staff and/or members.

The fund, under the stewardship of the Crisis Team of the Presbytery's Committee on Ministry (COM), strives to partner with individuals and congregations to marshal a range of resources to restore health, wholeness, and strength in situations of crisis, conflict, and situational need.

Requests and disbursements are kept in strictest confidence. The Crisis Team has wide latitude in administering the fund, using these guiding principles.

Funds are a part of an overall partnership of support in a time of crisis within a plan leading toward healing and independence.

Funds are intended to be short term assistance and not an ongoing form of financial support.

Funds are not intended to take the place of medical insurance, severance packages, or other ordinary transitional needs.

Funds are offered as a loan but may be provided as a grant whenever appropriate.

National Capital Presbytery

Individuals or congregations are encouraged to request assistance from the Ministry Crisis Fund through the General Presbyter, Stated Clerk, or the Chairperson of the Committee on Ministry.
