

WELCOME TO NATIONAL CAPITAL PRESBYTERY. . . .

Being introduced at the September 27, 2022, Stated Meeting

Elder Frank Oti-Boateng (CRE) Born in Accra, the capital city of Ghana. Born into a Christian family, an Episcopal mother, and a Presbyterian father, whose family has strong Presbyterian deep roots.

Joined Ebenezer Presbyterian Church in Woodbridge in 2004. Frank attended Seminary in 2012 and completed it in 2016 with a Master of Divinity. Throughout his studies, he served as a youth coordinator for the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church. In November 2016, he became a member of Christ The King Presbyterian Church. There he began his work as the youth coordinator and also organized the church's prayer team. Frank became a ruling Elder in 2019. Frank believes, "I know that God is going to lead me to serve in CTK as commissioned ruling Elder." Reach out to Frank here: mkfob31@gmail.com

The Rev. Allan Poole, HR (Transitional Pastor, National Presbyterian Church) is a native of Roanoke, Virginia. After graduating from Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, NC, he received an M.Div. from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and later, a Th.M. from Duke Divinity School. After being ordained to and serving for six years in his first position as associate minister at First Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem, he joined the pastoral staff at Blacknall Memorial Presbyterian Church in Durham, NC, where he served for thirty-six years. He is married to Betsy, his wife of thirty-six years, and together they have three children, Ellie, Sam, and Sarah. Since June 2021 he has been honorably retired and living in Durham. Reach out to Allan: apoole@nationalpres.org

Rev. Dr. Jay Moses (Pastor, Saint Mark Presbyterian Church) began work as a youth minister at a Presbyterian Church in Los Alamitos CA. Jay began to take classes at Fuller Seminary in Pasadena, CA seeking graduate studies in Clinical Psychology.

As a lifelong inquirer/learner, Jay had the good opportunity to learn a great deal while in Chicago on topics that have questioned him: liturgy, intra cultural dialogue, spiritual formation, and imaginative literature. Seeking and following the path of Anselm is a part of his spiritual practice. Dr. Moses also served on the faculty of two Universities (Elmhurst and Benedictine).

Jay's daughter is now in her Junior year at Redlands University (CA) with a major in Political Science, and his son is leaving to be a Freshman at Chapman University (CA). Jay and Sharri are eager and excited for this next chapter of their lives to begin, being first timers to living on the East Coast, empty nesters, and DC traffic!
