COMMISSIONED RULING ELDER PROGRAM

What is a Commissioned Ruling Elder (CRE)?

A CRE is an elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA) who is granted a local commission by the presbytery to limited pastoral service as assigned by the presbytery.

Who commissions the ruling elder?

When the presbytery is satisfied with the qualifications of a ruling elder to serve a congregation, it shall commission the ruling elder to pastoral service as designated by the presbytery,

What is the ruling elder commissioned to do?

A commissioned ruling elder is responsible to watch over the people and provide for their worship and nurture. Permission for specific activities will be included in the approval of the Committee on Ministry.

Why commission Ruling Elders?

We believe that God's Spirit provides opportunities for new forms of ministry to build up Christ's Church. Baptized Christians who are ordained as Ruling Elders may bring particular gifts to share in discernment of God's Spirit and governance of God's people.

What is the CRE application process?

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a Ruling Elder in the PC(USA);
- Must be endorsed by home church;
- Must submit application for approval by the Committee on Ministry;
- Must complete a psychological evaluation administered by LeaderWise.

Who certifies a CRE candidate as prepared to be and suitable for the role of CRE?

The Committee on Ministry (COM) interviews, reviews application, determines what training is required, and certifies to the presbytery that a candidate is ready to serve as a CRE.

What training is required?

A ruling elder who seeks to serve as a Commissioned Ruling Elder shall receive such preparation and instruction as determined by the presbytery. (G-2.1001-2.1004)

How is a CRE compensated?

A Commissioned Ruling Elder shall receive compensation in accordance with the presbytery's Compensation and Personnel Policy for Pastors. The policy may be found on NCP's website under the Documents tab - Committee on Ministry (COM) Documents.

National Capital Presbytery
Committee on Ministry

TRAINING

The Committee on Ministry requires the following areas of training for CRE candidates. The training for each CRE candidate shall be overseen and administered by COM.

- Biblical Studies
- Reformed Theology and Sacraments
- Presbyterian Polity
- Preaching
- Leading Worship (including administering sacraments when authorized)
- Pastoral Care
- Field Internship (a 6-week internship to include attendance at a session meeting, attendance at 1 or 2 worship services that includes the Sacrament of Communion, attendance at a committee meeting, and a meeting with the pastor who will discuss the pastor's ministry and the ministry of the church)
- Healthy Boundary Training

What is the process for examination and eligibility for ministry?

EXAMINATION and COMMISSIONING

- The Committee on Ministry is charged with conducting a background check and the examination of those it certifies as prepared to be and suitable for the role of Commissioned Ruling Elder.
- The Committee on Ministry will present candidates to National Capital Presbytery with a written statement from the candidates concerning their sense of call.
- The Committee on Ministry will recommend that the presbytery approve the candidate as eligible to be commissioned to a particular ministry.
- Following presbytery approval, the commissioning may take place either within the context of a worship service at a time other than the presbytery meeting or within the context of a presbytery meeting, the choice being made by those about to be commissioned. The commission may be renewed at expiration or terminated at any time at the discretion of the COM.
- Within the ministry to which the CRE has been commissioned, the CRE may be authorized by COM to perform one or more of the following services:
 - Prepare and lead worship
 - Provide administrative leadership in this ministry
 - Administer the Lord's Supper only in this ministry
 - Administer the Sacrament of Baptism only in this ministry
 - Moderate the session and congregational meetings of the congregation
 - Have a voice in meetings of presbytery
 - Have a vote in meetings of the presbytery (such vote to be counted as a ruling elder)

Who supervises the CRE?

The CRE shall work under the supervision of the Committee on Ministry. A minister of the Word and Sacrament shall be assigned as a mentor.

EXAMINATION

(Four Parts)

- 1) Complete a one-page Statement of Faith which outlines your views on the Trinity, salvation, the church, and the sacraments.
- 2) Complete a one-page Biographical Sketch which traces your faith journey and call to and/or service in ministry.
- 3) Complete a one-page (total) paper with answers to the Ordination Questions asked of all presbyters at ordination, installation, and/or commissioning as listed below:

Ordination Questions

Please select 2 of the 9 following questions and write a half-page response to each question (total - one page). Use the question-bullets as a guide to your answer. It is not necessary to answer each bullet point.

1. Do you trust in Jesus Christ your Savior, acknowledge him Lord of all and Head of the Church, and through him believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?
 - What does it mean to you to trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior?
 - What does it mean to you that Jesus Christ is Lord of all? Head of the Church?
 - What does it mean to you to say that God is one yet made up of three persons?
 - What is the relationship between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?

2. Do you accept the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be, by the Holy Spirit, the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ in the Church universal, and God's Word to you?
 - What role does the Holy Spirit play in our interpretation of the Scriptures?
 - In what way are the Scriptures the "unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ"?
 - How are the Scriptures "God's Word to you"?

3. Do you sincerely receive and adopt the essential tenets of the Reformed faith as expressed in the confessions of our church as authentic and reliable expositions of what Scripture leads us to believe and do, and will you be instructed and led by those confessions as you lead the people of God?
 - List some of what you understand to be the "essential tenets" of the Reformed faith.
 - Do you find any of them in conflict with what you think that "Scripture leads us to believe and do"?

4. Will you fulfill your ministry in obedience to Jesus Christ, under the authority of Scripture, and be continually guided by our confessions?
 - What does it mean to you to be obedient to Jesus Christ?
 - What does it mean to you to be under the authority of Scripture?
 - What does it mean to you to be guided by our confessions?

National Capital Presbytery
Committee on Ministry

5. Will you be governed by our church's polity, and will you abide by its discipline?
 - What does it mean to you "to be guided by our church's polity"?
 - What does it mean to you "to abide by our church's discipline"?
 - How does the church "discern the will of Christ"?
6. Will you in our own life seek to follow the Lord Jesus Christ, love your neighbors, and work for the reconciliation of the world?
 - What is the hardest part of keeping this vow for you?
7. Do you promise to further the peace, unity, and purity of the church? What is your role as an elder to further the peace, unity, and purity of the church? Is that role different from that of any other member of the church?
 - What do you do when these three (peace, unity, and purity) are in tension?
8. Will you pray for and seek to serve the people with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love?
 - What does it mean to you to "serve the people"?
9. Will you be a faithful ruling elder in this commission, serving the people by proclaiming the good news, teaching faith and caring for the people, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?
 - How do you see your role as commissioned ruling elder in this particular church?
 - If appropriate, how will you balance your service to the larger church to that of the congregation?
 - How do you balance showing "the love and justice of Jesus Christ"? (Adapted from CRE manual from Coastal Carolina Presbytery)

(Adapted from CRE Manual from Coastal Carolina Presbytery)

- 4) Complete the Five Examination Interview Essays (revised 11/16/22). Please limit each essay to a half of page.
 1. The Fourth Ordination Question asks, "Will you fulfill your ministry in obedience to Jesus Christ, under the authority of Scriptures, and be continually guided by our Confessions?" Given that the Confessions are Part I of the Constitution of the PC(USA), what does it mean to you to be guided by our Confessions? List which of the Confessions speak to you the most deeply and why? Is there something in our Confessions that you no longer believe to be true?
 2. What led you to be a part of the Reformed tradition of the PC(USA) and what do you understand to be the "essential tenets" of the Reformed faith?
 3. The Fifth Ordination Question asks, "Will you be governed by our church's polity, and will you abide by its discipline? What does it mean to you to be governed by the polity of the PC(USA)?"
 4. The Seventh Ordination Question asks, "Do you promise to further the peace, unity, and purity of the church?" What do you do when these three (i.e., peace, unity, and purity) are in tension?
 5. With respect to Section G-2.0104 of the Book of Order (Gifts and Qualifications), which of your gifts best serves you in your ministry in the PC(USA)? Which one or two gifts would you be looking for in potential Elders and Deacons to aid in their ministry in the church?
