

In Search of Biblical Justice Annual Conference

CONNECTING BIBLICAL JUSTICE, HUMAN RIGHTS, AND CIVIL RIGHTS: THE LAST FRONTIER

WHEN

June 9-10, 2023

HOSTED BY

Memorial Baptist Church

With Rev. Dr. Drew Hill

3455 N Glebe Rd, Arlington, VA 22207

Throughout the prophetic literature in the Bible, God rejects Israel's feast and fast because the people ignored the biblical demands of justice in their social, moral, and economic lives (Isaiah 1: 11-31; 58: 5b-6; Amos 5: 21-24; Jeremiah 7:1-11; Ezekiel 8-9; Micah 6:6-8; and Malachi 2). The Bible discloses the mandate for Christians to seek first the Kingdom of God and the eternal beauty of His justice (Matthew 6:33). However, centuries after God's revelations, ideas of governance suggest a disconnect between biblical justice, human rights, and civil rights. The Institute for Justice Formation is seeking to address the apparent gap separating biblical justice, human rights, and civil rights in the light of critical biblical engagement. We take up the responsibility to bring together the academy and the church toward a biblical vision of human flourishing.
