

WELCOME TO NATIONAL CAPITAL PRESBYTERY. . . .

Being introduced at the May 23, 2023, Stated Meeting

Rev. Matt Nabinger, Rev. Matt Nabinger is the Organizing Pastor of Queerly Gathered, a validated ministry and New Worshiping Community geared toward LGBTQ+ folx and their loved ones. Matt has been serving as the Director of Christian Education at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church for the past six years right here in National Capital Presbytery. He is excited to continue working with children and youth at Bradley Hills as he expands his role with Queerly Gathered.

No stranger to the area, Matt grew up in Bowie, MD and has lived in Washington, DC since 2017. Before attending seminary, Matt was an elementary school music teacher in central Virginia and in Philadelphia City. He graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary in 2017. Matt currently serves on the NCP Spiritual Formation Team, and he was co-chair of the team from 2020-2021. Matt is excited to continue sharing his gifts and talents in the National Capital Presbytery.
