

“Prophetic Preaching in a Tone-Deaf Culture”

A Webinar with Dr. Kenyatta Gilbert

Dean of the Howard University School of Divinity

Dean Kenyatta Gilbert will give a presentation that examines what it means to both preach about justice and work for it in daily life. He will share insights from the African-American religious tradition that can be used to help churches and individuals be more effective in their efforts to provide a prophetic witness. After his remarks, he will engage in a dialogue with Rev. Lionel Edmonds, a Washington, DC pastor and social justice activist.
