

Called to Action: Climate, Hope and the Lost Trees of Willow Avenue
A Story of Climate and Hope on One American Street

Discussion with local author & climate activist Mike Tidwell, Sunday June 29 (4-5 pm)

Join us Sunday June 29 (4-5 pm) for discussion with local author and climate activist Mike Tidwell about the role of faith and action in his new book, The Lost Trees of Willow Avenue: A Story of Climate and Hope on One American Street. The book is a powerful story of climate change impacts through the lens of one local neighborhood, from dying trees and human struggles to action and hope. Dr. Mark Eakin, climate scientist and member of Presbyterians for Earth Care, will facilitate the discussion, followed by light refreshments and book signing.

All welcome this free event will be held at the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, 310 Tulip Ave, Takoma Park, MD. For remote access or other information please see the TPPC events page or contact rogergriffis61@gmail.com.
