Training for Pioneers at the Intersection of the Marketplace and God's Mission hosted by the Missional Incubator of the National Capital Presbytery and Fresh Expressions US.

What if the next story could come from your community?
Missional entrepreneurship turns holy discontent into Kingdom impact—it's what happens when visionaries stop waiting and start building what the Spirit is stirring.

"It started with a simple Keurig, a neighbor's story, and a deep sense that church could look different—by the time the espresso machine was running, so was a new kind of faith community."
