

Brentsville Presbyterian Church
12305 Bristow Road, Bristow, Virginia 20136

Part-Time Pastor Position

About Us:

Brentsville Presbyterian Church is a warm and loving congregation of approximately 25 members, primarily seniors, with a deep commitment to faith, fellowship, and community. Our church offers a welcoming spirit and a rich heritage of worship in the heart of Bristow, Virginia.

Position Summary:

We are seeking a compassionate and spiritually grounded Part-Time Pastor to lead our congregation in worship, pastoral care, and spiritual growth. The pastor will provide Sunday morning worship services and support the ongoing vitality and growth of the church community.

Responsibilities Include:

- Leading Sunday morning worship service each week at 11:00 a.m.
- Providing pastoral care and visitation for members in need (hospital, homebound, or counseling).
- Supporting church growth initiatives and community outreach.
- Officiating weddings, funerals, and special services as needed.
- Attending and providing leadership for quarterly Session meetings.
- Collaborating with church leadership to guide the spiritual direction and mission of the congregation.

Qualifications:

- Ordained pastor (or eligible for ordination) within a recognized Christian denomination.
- Strong preaching, teaching, and pastoral care skills.
- A heart for serving a small, senior congregation with empathy and encouragement.
- Certified Moderator status is a plus but not required.
- Commitment to fostering spiritual growth and community engagement.

Compensation:

Part-time; compensation commensurate with experience and hours.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates are invited to email a resume and a brief statement of faith to Jane Riley at jmriley431@verizon.net.

We look forward to welcoming a caring pastor to share in ministry and fellowship with our church family.