Immanuel is seeking an Evening Service Musician (ESM) to lead our 5:00 p.m. Sunday evening services on the first and third Sundays of each month. In collaboration with the pastoral staff and music director, the ESM will select and lead music for these services. The ESM will work with volunteers and staff to rehearse and perform the music and provide a welcoming and positive atmosphere in the worship service and rehearsals.

Essential Functions

- Lead music for Immanuel's evening worship service (with church members and staff)
- Coordinate with pastoral staff, Music Director, and musicians to choose appropriate music for non-traditional worship.
- Coordinate volunteer musicians for four weekday evening rehearsals per month and rehearsal the day of the service.
- Lead setup and teardown of musical equipment for the worship service and rehearsals.
- Exhibit strong ability on a lead musical instrument, preferably piano, but perhaps guitar.
- Use strong lead vocal skills in helping the gathered community worship.
- Arrange music, create song sheets, and distribute PDFs for use by evening band.

Other Responsibilities:

- Meet regularly with pastoral staff and music director
- Evaluate and improve the service on an ongoing basis

Minimum Qualifications:

- Musical training, with a background in a variety of musical styles in the Christian tradition
- Ability to effectively play an instrument in worship leadership (ideally guitar or piano/keyboards)
- Strong singing voice

- Proficiency with Microsoft Word, ForScore, and iPads - and/or willingness to learn
- Be available by email for communication.

Physical Requirements:

- Able to move freely in and out of different group settings (church buildings, etc)
- Ability to move equipment for set ups

Please submit your resume and cover letter along with three example recordings (MP3 or WAV format, or provide link to YouTube or other online platform) to immanuelpresbyteriancc@gmail.com.
