

“Christian Nationalism: A Danger to the Church and Democracy”

A webinar featuring Rev. Jimmie Hawkins,
Director of Advocacy and Witness for the Presbyterian Church U.S.A

Christians have always struggled to find the right relationship between the commitment they have made to their faith and the commitment they feel to their country. A significant number of Christians in the United States embrace ideas that blur the distinction between these two different loyalties and some even believe we should merge the two identities and describe ourselves as a Christian nation. Rev. Jimmie Hawkins will share insights from a new book he has written on the origins of Christian Nationalism and discuss a wide variety of issues about what the proper role of Christianity should be in public and political life.
