Parking at National Capital Presbyterian

- Recommend using Google Maps and the parking garage address above.
- Once here, look for signs for Parking for Building 6700.
- There is free parking around the pond or parking for a fee ($9 for three or more hrs) in the parking garage.
- The parking garage is managed by “Vend.” The system will scan your license plate, and first-time users will be asked for their cell phone number. The system will text you payment instructions before you leave the lot. When you exit, if you added payment, the gate will open automatically. Park in an UNRESERVED parking spot.
- From the Parking garage, look for a cream colored awning. Follow the sidewalk between the two buildings, then turn right into 6700-A and go to the 2nd floor, Suite 250, for the NCP Office. For the first-floor conference room, speak to the concierge desk for directions.
