Notice of the Stated Meeting of National Capital Presbytery

Dear Colleagues,

Notice is hereby given for the 329th Stated Meeting of National Capital Presbytery, to be held online via Zoom on Tuesday, November 17, at 5:00 p.m.

At this meeting, we will worship God together and, in our service of necrology, give thanks for the lives and ministries of those in our presbytery who have joined the church triumphant this year. We will consider and act on the 2027 Budget of the Presbytery, with time in small groups to talk it through together. We will also convene the Meeting of the Corporation of National Capital Presbytery. We will commission Elder Kris Maldarelli to Commissioned Ruling Elder service at Fairfax Presbyterian Church, welcome new minister members, and receive the reports of our committees and commissions, along with any actions they bring for our discernment.

On Monday, November 16, at 7:00 p.m., we will gather on Zoom ahead of the meeting. This is a chance to look at the business before us, specifically around the 2027 Budget of the Presbytery. It'll be an opportunity to ask questions and get acquainted with Zoom prior to our meeting.

Please register for the meeting in advance through the Presbytery website (LINK). Your registration also tells us we have a quorum, so please register even if you plan to join at the last minute. Meeting materials will go up on the same page no later than Friday, November 13.

I am grateful for the welcome so many of you gave me in September, and I look forward to seeing you, on screen this time, on the 17th.

Grace and peace,

Alex Evangelista
